It is understood that in accordance with the above, the reversion of Mr. Gopal Rao, and the posting proposed in the draft, were decided upon, in informal discussion in Council, and that there are no other papers on the subject.

Mr. Navaneetham Naider's leave terminates on the 24th Inst. and the issue of orders is therefore necessary urgently

Dear Sir,

In reply to your D.O.C.1726/C.B. dated the 22nd instant asking me to suggest the names of half-a-dozen officers with a view to select three for the Police Department in the place of Messrs. M. Rama Rao, S. Naravana Rao and V. Gopala Rao, I invite reference to my D.O. dated the 14th April 1921 suggesting four names.

Of them Mr. P. H. Krishna Rao has been posted to this Department. Mr. C. Lakshmana Rao had also been posted; but his posting was cancelled. The other two officers might be appointed. I can suggest the names from among the Assistant Police Superintendents of this Department and Amildars; but it is likely that you want me to suggest the names of officers who are Assistant Commissioners already. I have once before written about Mr. Abdul Aziz Khan and can have him. I shall have no objection to try Mr. Navaneetham Naidu. As a temporary measure I can have Mr. C. Narayana Rao, Personal Assistant to Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore, as District Superintendent of Police of Bangalore.

Your D.O. letter No.C.1795/C.B. dated the 27th September 1921 enquiring whether I wish to add to or modify my proposals re the posting of officers to the Police Department, practically amounts to asking how I would propose to dispose of Mr. Hayes when an Assistant Superintendent is put in charge of the Railway Police and C.I.D.

Mr. Hayes cannot find it convenient to leave Bangalore and does not feel fit to do out-door and touring work. So, at his request he was posted as my office Assistant in 1919. I was not satisfied with his work and the next best place for him in the Department was the Superintendentship of Railways and C.I.D. That ceases now and he has already been tried once as Office Assistant. What Mr. Hayes would like now is to be kept on in Bangalore as a Magistrate, Personal Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner or Excise Commissioner or given some such

Dear Sir

In the G.O. transferring certain Assistant Commissioners to the Police Department, I have to propose a slight alteration. Believing that Mr. Shama Rao would welcome a change to Bangalore, I proposed him as my Office Assistant. Latterly thinking it desirable to consult him, I wired to him on Tuesday last and he has replied pleading domestic inconvenience to leave Chitaldrug.

When I suggested Mr. Shama Rao's name I expected that the other officers to be transferred to the Department would be inexperienced Gentlemen. Now however as experienced officers have been transferred the field for choice is widened. Mr. Lakshman Rao, whom I consulted prefers a mufussil Station to a costly place like Bangalore.

Mr. Gopala Char has just now wired signifying his willingness to ^{work} enter as my office Assistant. He might be posted as my Office Assistant and Mr. Lakshman Rao, as District Superintendent of Police, Kolar.

Dear Mr. Bowring,

I submitted your letter to the Dewan. As Mr. S. Narayana Rao has already joined, it is too late now to think of cancelling the transfers. The Dewan desires me to add that as Mr. T. Venkataramiah, District Treasury Officer is familiar with the work connected with the visit of His Royal Highness the -- Prince of Wales (having been brought here on a similar duty in 1905), you may, if ^{you} deem it expedient, employ him as such in connection with this work, putting another Assistant in charge of the District Treasury for the time being.

Yours sincerely,

P. F. Bowring, Esq.,
Ag. Excise Commissioner and
Commissioner of Incometax.
